Classes Elected Year's Officers Last Week

Election of class officers was held on campus last week. Holding the key office of president in the four classes are James Daniel, senior; Lacy Wilkins, junior; Dewey Bratcher, sophomore; and James Owens, freshman.

Heading the senior class, Jim Daniel is an agriculture major from Sturgis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Daniel and an honor graduate of Sturgis High school. At Western, Jim is a member of the group staff of the AFROTC, executive officer of the Scabbard and Blade, and chaplain of the Cherry Country Life club.

This is Jim's fourth year as a member of the Pershing Rifles. He has been secretary of this organization and served on the crack drill squad two years and the platoon drill squad two years. In 1953, he won the individual drill competition in the Regimental meet at Indiana University. Last year he was in charge of the color guard flag raising detail.

Inability to find a key to their meeting place, Cedar House didn't stop the sophomore class from holding their election of class officers last week. With a little less dignity than their fellow students, the sophomores chose new officers while sitting amid books and jackets on the sidewalk in front of the locked Cedar House.

Jim was also a member of the AFROTC Glee Club for two years, the Western Players for one year, and the track team for two years. He has also served as president of the Bowling Green Christian Church youth group for two years.

Lacy Wilkins Heads Juniors
Lacy Wilkins, Hopkinsville, has been chosen president of his class for the second consecutive year. Lacy, an English major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wilkins, Louisville. He is a member of the Leiper English club and the Congress Debating club. Lacy is a graduate of Hopkinsville High school, where he served as president of the Key Club and was a class officer for three years.

Sophomore class president, Dewey Bratcher, is an English major. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bratcher, Louisville, and a graduate of Shawnee High school. Dewey is a member of the Western

Fall Enrollment Jumps To 1,807

Mr. E. H. Canon, Registrar, announced Western's enrollment this semester is 1,807 students.

Students from 79 of Kentucky's 120 counties are represented on the Hill this fall.

One-hundred ten out-of-state students are in attendance representing twenty-two states. Of these twenty-two states, besides Kentucky, Tennessee ranks first, Indiana second, and Virginia third in the number of students attending Western.

Enrollment for the fall term shows an increase of 211 over last year's fall enrollment.

Let's Go To Tech

Western's football team travels to Cookeville, Tenn., tomorrow night to play Tennessee Tech.

Western has arranged to take two buses for the students. Those who are interested in making the trip, contact Bobby Hensley at once.

The price for the round trip of 244 miles is $2.75.

Debate Grows Hot As Students Campaign

By Jane Winchester
Just as the elections of class officers at Western have been the highlight of the campus for the past few weeks, so has the senatorial campaign and coming election of a Kentucky senator been the highlight of the state.

Class campaigning was merely a start for Western students who now, under the direction of the Congress

Debating Club, find themselves taking active part in the Kentucky Senatorial campaign by preparing to hold a mock election.

The mock election will take place on Oct. 28 in the front corridor of Cherry Hall where polls will be erected for each class. The student, qualified by registering at the office of the Registrar on Sept. 17 and 18, will go to the booth bearing his classification and there receive a ballot on which he will vote for the candidate of his choice.

Members of the Congress Debate Club will be working at the polls, and will check the name of each student who votes; therefore, no student will get to vote twice and the club will have a record of the

THERE! NOW IT'S YOUR TURN TO CLEAN THE ROOM NEXT SATURDAY.

HILLTOPICS

By JUDY KOCH

The lights were dim.
The room was filled with music.
Assorted 'scientists', more social in thought than scientific, stood about the large laboratory.

Expectancy pervaded the atmosphere. Would the latest experiment on Western's campus prove a success?

Gradually more and more people filled the large room. These people talked to each other. They laughed. They began to dance. They were having a good time.

The experiment was a success!
The 'scientists', composed of members of the faculty and administrative staff, beamed with pride at the successfulness of their project to provide Western students with more weekend social activities and began to make plans for more of these social functions.

Yes, the Harvest Moon Hop held last Saturday night in the Student Union building proved that Western students want, need, and will attend more weekend social affairs.

The dance last week was free and music was provided by the Red and Gray Orchestra. The student Union building was roomy enough for everyone to be comfortable—ample space for dancing, plenty of chairs for chatting with friends, and accessibility of the Snack Bar for refreshments.

Freshmen expecting their college life to be filled with a round of activities, probably did not appreciate the hop as much as the upperclassmen, who realize the importance of having campus sponsored affairs as often as possible.

The old problem of 'suit-case' students will be partially alleviated if these people are given more reasons for staying on campus over the weekend. Who would want to dash home after Friday classes, if he knew his friends would be staying here to attend a dance or some other social function?

A big thank you to those responsible for increasing the social life at Western.

Let's get the ball rolling so that Homecoming this year will be the biggest and most festive ever held on Western's campus!

Preceding the 25th annual Homecoming game, Saturday, Nov. 6, will be many, varied activities designed to welcome back the old grads as well as entertain present students. Pep rallies, the Homecoming Dance, a parade, chapel, and several get-togethers will precede the game.

Western faces arch rival Eastern at the Homecoming game. No one wants to miss the tense excitement always present when these foes clash! Coronation ceremonies featuring the queen and her attendants will highlight the half-time program.

Following the game, a reception, more get-togethers, and the Shadow Hop will complete the weekend festivities.

Plans are already being made for the Homecoming Parade, which promises to be the largest parade ever held in this area, according to Ray Buckberry and Bob Bilyeu, students from Bowling Green and co-chairmen of this event. Western's band will be joined by several high school bands in setting the pace for the regalia of floats, convertibles containing the queen candidates, and marching groups. Dorm, town, and organizational floats will compete for a variety of prizes donated by local merchants.

The Hill will be decked out in multi-colored crepe paper, signs, and characteristic dummies as the dorm groups endeavor to outwit each other in cleverness and originality for the honor of being the best decorated.

Alternating rain and bright sunlight plus chill winds did not daunt the spirit of Western fans last Saturday as they cheered the football team to a victory over Northeast Louisiana State.

Keep up the good spirit, and we'll see ya tomorrow night in Cookeville!

New Pep Club Organized

One of the best ways to derive better results from school spirit is through a pep club.

Western's newly formed Pep Club met for the first time Oct. 14, and in spite of the bad weather about fifty students attended. At this meeting, cheerleader Bobby Hensley discussed the importance of the club by stressing the importance of school spirit.

Several years ago, Western sponsored a pep club, which was the largest organization on the Hill at that time. The club was dissolved, however, and since then many vain attempts have been made to organize a new group.

If successfully organized, the new Pep Club will encourage students to sit in a group, to form lines on the field, and to bring cow bells and shakers to the games.

Support Your Officers

Last week, Western students selected class officers for the coming year. Leaders in each class were chosen to direct as well as to serve their classmates.

The candidates were well-qualified. Many of the election results were close, others were landslide victories; but in every case the students now in office received the majority of votes.

Whether your candidate won or lost, support those in office and thus promote a better working class organization. Not only should the class members co-operate fully with their officers, but also these officers should do their utmost to fulfill the obligation to their fellow students.

Put Away Those Letters

A number of students who have won high school letters have been wearing them on the Western campus. Please do not wear these letters, as it has been the practice in the past that only Western varsity letter winners are entitled to wear the letters on the Hill.

Being a college letter winner is an honor. Let us not detract from this honor by wearing any letter which has not been earned at Western.

Book Marks

By PATTIE THOMPSON

The trouble with books is as the old lady said of The Ten Commandments, "They put notions in people's heads."

The library furnishes books and materials for collateral reading of all classes and also books and periodicals of cultural and recreational reading. These book resources provide background reading for those preparing for teaching and other professions and for making good citizens in general.

How can we get all of those books read? We have to compete with the Student Union recreations, movies, radio, and television, but we know nothing takes the place of reading.

Western's librarians planning to attend the convention of the Kentucky Library Association in Louisville, Oct. 28-30, are Miss Margie Helm, Miss Sara Tyler, and Mrs. Sara Garritt.

Miss Helm is chairman of the Certification Board. Miss Tyler is chairman of the College and Reference Section which is having a breakfast meeting on Saturday morning.

Five novels have been especially popular these last few weeks, and the movies have encouraged their being read. They are — The Egyptian, The Rebe, Quo Vadis, Gone With The Wind, and Little Boy Lost.

Among the nation's most popular books is the historical novel, Katherine, by Anya Seton, daughter of Ernest Thompson Seton. Katherine is the woman loved by John of Gaunt in England at the time of Chaucer, John Wycliff, Edward III, and Richard II.

Love Is Eternal, by Erving Stone, is the story of Abraham Lincoln and Mary Todd. Other popular books are Vilhelm Moberg's Under a Good Land, German Stories and Tales, and Mr. Hebb's Vacation by Edward Streeter.

New periodicals added to the Library are American Sociological Review, the official journal of the American Sociological Society; and American Anthropologist, published six times a year, containing articles covering the entire field of anthropology.

Books of plays received since January, 1954, include many now playing on Broadway.

Musical Notes

By BARBARA EUBANK

If your windows rattle it is not because of jets flying over but the ambitious scraping, blowing, and pounding of the new Freshman class of music students. Freshman auditions turned up some excellent talent, and we are on our way to another fine year of music at Western.

Announced at the Oct. 7 faculty recital was the music department's plan to have all music students meet in a group with their private teachers one evening a month for a class lesson. In these group sessions, the teachers will discuss matters of technique, style, literature and practicing. The students will have the opportunity of playing for each other before appearing in a public recital.

The Music department and Training School announce the appointment of Earle Boardman as director of the Training School orchestra and teacher of cello and bass. Mr. Boardman received his undergraduate training at Oberlin College in Ohio and did his graduate study at Colorado State College. He has studied privately with Raymond Gerkowski in Cleveland and with Over James in London during his two years of Air Force service in England.

For the past four years, Mr. Boardman has been in charge of the school orchestra program for the city of Greeley, Col. In that capacity, he directed six school orchestras and played with the Greeley Philharmonic Orchestra. For the past three summers, he has been on the faculty of the University of Wyoming.

The band's performance this fall is due in part to our drum majors, Jerry Williams and Shirley Barnes, both of whom are freshmen. Jerry graduated from Henderson High School in 1951 and for the past three years has been stationed with the Air Force Band in California.

Shirley, as a member of Beaver Dam High School Band, led that organization in the 1952 and 1953 Western Kentucky marching band contests held at Princeton. She was selected by the judges as the most outstanding directing drum major in the contest.

Rogers Met And Wed In France

By TRACY BONE

Two Americans, Lawton and Judy Rogers, now Western students, did not meet, fall in love and marry the ordinary way. No, Lawton, an Oklahoman, and Judy, a Kentuckian, met in France and were married in not one but two ceremonies. The first wedding was by a French Civil Authority and the second was a military wedding by an Army chaplain.

The couple spent their honeymoon on the island of Mallorca in the Balearic Islands off the coast of Barcelona, Spain. The Rogers' rented a 200-year-old house near La Rochelle for $75.00 a month. The house had no hot water, bath or heat and was sparsely furnished. The couple's greatest treat while living in France was driving 35 miles into La Rochelle on the weekends to take a bath at the home of Mrs. Rogers' parents, Mr. and Mr. William E. Lawson.

The couple has an 11-month-old son, William Penn Adair Rogers, named after the late Will Rogers, who is Lawton's cousin.

Lawton Rogers was born in Oklahoma in 1927. He joined the Army in 1946 and was discharged in 1947, after which he attended San Jose State College, San Jose, California from 1947 to 1949 when he received a commission as a second lieutenant. He attended Mexico City College, Mexico City from 1949 to 1950 when he was called into service. While he was stationed in La Rochelle, France he married Judy Lawson.

Rogers was discharged in 1953 and enrolled at Western the following September, as a senior with a major in social science.

Mrs. Judy Rogers, freshman at Western and French major, was born at Cynthiana. She attended Fort Knox High school in 1949 and high schools in Berlin and Frankfurt, Germany in 1949-51. She attended a French school for girls from 1951 to 1952 and then attended Paris Dependents High school at La Rochelle, France in 1953 when she married.

Judy Rogers' father is Lt. Col. William E. Lawson now stationed at Fort Knox.

Marine Captain Will Arrive Mon.

Capt. C. G. Moody, Marine Corps procurement officer for this area, will visit Western, Monday, to interview students interested in becoming Marine officers.

Captain Moody and his staff will be on campus from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. to discuss with students the merits of the current officer programs offered by the Marine Corps and to explain obligations which must be met before obtaining a commission.

The Marine Corps makes available two programs in which college students may obtain commissions after graduation. A platoon leaders class, open to freshmen, sophomores and juniors, requires two 6-week summer training periods at Quantico, Va. A second program, the Marine Corps officer candidate course, enables seniors to receive commissions by attending 10 continuous weeks of training at Quantico after graduation.

During his stay, the Captain may be contacted at the Administration Building.

Library Group Met During TDEA

During TDEA last week the librarian section met for a luncheon meeting with 45 present. High school librarians present represented each of the 13 counties comprising the 3rd district. Luncheon was served on the third floor of the library.

Mrs. Columbia Jones, librarian of the North Warren High school, Smith's Grove, presided as chairman. Miss Elizabeth Stagner, librarian at Bowling Green High school was secretary. In the business session Miss Stagner was re-elected for a term of two years. Mrs. Jones term will expire in 1955.

The program was concerned with bookmobile service to the county schools. Miss Vern Martin of Glasgow and Mrs. Thurmond Dixon of Glasgow were the speakers.

Discussions, brought out three main problems in organizing the work of the bookmobile. The financial one can be met if the county schools, the fiscal court and other organizations contributed. The book collections should include enough books and magazines to serve the county. A driver librarian must be selected who knows the county and who knows books and how to guide the children and adults in their needs.

'Pinballitis' Rages On Hill

By Bill Veneman

Medical science has gone a long way toward the cure of most of the diseases that at one time plagued man. Yet there is a disease of almost epidemic proportions raging over the Western campus that few, except the victims, are aware of—that of 'Acute Contagious Infectious Pinballitis.'

This disease has the peculiar property of attacking only the male of the species. The victim is not always conscious of his illness until it has him thoroughly in its grasp. By this time the chances of recovery are very small.

'Pinballitis' has many barely perceptible but interesting symptoms. An early symptom is a noticeable shrinkage in the region of the wallet. This symptom, however, is sometimes replaced by a temporary swelling in the same region.

Victims can usually be found clustered together around a strange 'mechanical monster' which from time to time utters a series of whirrs, clicks and thuds, accompanied by the blinking of various colored lights. This phenomena will have a varied affect upon the afflicted gathering. Sometimes they will feel elation. Then again, the reaction may be a show of anger followed by a period of short depression.

Some have defeated 'Pinballitis'. These determined few recommend that the victim isolate himself from the mechanical nickel-eater or at least maintain a distance of no less than six-feet. The cure is slow but relatively sure.

This disease has never proved fatal, but contraction of A.C.I.P. causes one an extremely uncomfortable feeling and can often reach extremely fantastic proportions.

You who have not as yet fallen victim to this expensive disease are an enviable few.

By the way, has anybody got change for a quarter?

Colonel Hanks Returns To Western ROTC

By RUSSELL BALLINGER AND BILLY JOE HOWARD

Serving Western this year as assistant military property custodian is Alger Hanks, retired Army lieutenant colonel and veteran of thirty-nine years military service.

Colonel Hanks was an instructor in military science at Western from 1934 to 1940, during which time the ROTC unit was changed from a junior unit to a senior unit. Among his students were Col. Alvis Howell, Col. Gilbert Durham, and Lt. Col. Sidney Carpenter, who are still serving with the regular army. Another of his students was Bob Cochran of the public relations department.

Not only has Colonel Hanks had an illustrious military career, but he has also had five sons in the service, two of which are now in the Air Force.

Four of his eight children attended Western. His sons Joe, Gene, and George are former students and his daughter, Patricia, is a senior on the hill.

Colonel Hanks entered the army in 1908 as an enlisted man. He was in the Philippine Islands from 1908 to 1911 and was with the first troops that were stationed on the Hawaiian Islands in 1912. He also took part in the war along the Mexican border in 1916.

After receiving a commission in Officers Candidate School in 1917, Colonel Hanks was sent overseas to fight in World War I.

In 1934, he came to Western as an instructor in military science, and remained here until 1940 when he was ordered back to active duty as a captain. During World War II the officer saw action in Italy, Germany, Africa, and Austria. He was with 10th Infantry division and replacement depot, Italy; the 5th Infantry division, Germany; and the Austrian Zone Command.

While he was in Europe three of his sons were also serving in the European theater. His oldest son, Lt. George Hanks was wounded during that time. Retiring due to his injuries, Lieutenant Hanks returned to Bowling Green to attend Western. He was graduated in 1950.

Colonel Hanks retired in 1949 and returned to Bowling Green. His interest and close associations with military life have brought him back to Western's ROTC department as assistant military property custodian.

Colonel Alger Hanks is assistant military property custodian for the ROTC units at Western.

Homecoming Nov. 6—Goal of 500 Life Members; Ballots Now In Mail, Return By Nov. 5

Life Memberships continue to come in. Since the last issue of the Herald, three new memberships have been received in the Alumni Office. This makes a total of 41. The goal is 500. Send that $10 in and do not worry about your alumni dues anymore.

New members, Mrs. Morton Ray, BS '50, the former Dot Agnew. She now resides at 7 East Wilson Circle, Red Bank, N. J. Her husband is stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Harvey J. Dixon, BS '52 and MA '54, now an Industrial Arts instructor at Southern High School in Jefferson county at Oklahoma. Harvey's wife, Mrs. Mae D. Dixon, BS '50 and MA '52, principal of the Valley Elementary School in Jefferson county.

Miss Sara Tyler, AB '32, member of the Library Science department at Western.

Let's have more and more of the Life Memberships to report in the next issue of the Herald which comes out Nov. 5.

A meeting of the Alumni Association's Board of Directors was held in the Student Union Building on Oct. 16. Nominations for next year's officers were selected. Ballots are being mailed to all members of the association. These ballots are to be returned to the Secretary by Nov. 5.

It is planned that the new officers elected be announced at the Homecoming chapel on the morning of Nov. 6. Formal installation of the new officers will be held at the annual Alumni Luncheon on Commencement Day next June.

The following is a copy of the letter which Alumni president Huddleston sent to each of the county representatives.

Dear _____:

Our Association is trying to become more effective in promoting the best interests of Western. And we need your help in _____ County.

The appointment of several county representatives will be announced in the next issue of the College Heights Herald. You have been chosen as the alumnus upon whom we shall especially rely in your county, and your appointment will be publicized in the Herald unless you advise us in the meantime that you cannot serve.

To begin with, we earnestly solicit your criticism of the Association and your constructive suggestions as to its activities.

We hope that you will make an effort to become acquainted with all Western alumni in your county and that you will keep us informed of their moves and accomplishments which deserve publicity. It would be most helpful if you would attend to the organization of a county association.

We also hope that you will give particular attention to the students from your county now attending Western. Mr. E. H. Canon, the registrar, will prepare and send you a list of your county students, and you will think of various ways to recognize and encourage them. It has been suggested that a party or banquet during the next holiday season would be attractive and helpful to both the alumni and the present students.

Candidates for president and director of the Alumni Association will be nominated at a meeting of the board of directors on October 16th. Please write us prior to that time with suggestions as to persons who should be nominated. Election results will be announced at Homecoming, and the successful candidates will be installed during Commencement.

As we shall feel free to call upon you for help from time to time, so, also, you can count upon us in developing your own local program. For our own satisfaction and for the benefit of those who will come after, let's stand together in this endeavor to fulfill the promise of a growing and greater Western.

Other stops included the Coliseum in Rome; the Isle of Capri; Elysian Fields and the Convent of Daphne in Athens; the Beethoven house in Vienna, and the Vienna Woods.

In London, they saw Gwenda Davies, who was an exchange teacher at College High in 1952-53.

When they arrived home the first week in September, Mr. Lowe commented, "Kentucky looks good. It's nice to travel to far-away places, to romantic spots over the sea, but it's also nice to get back to familiar faces, and home—a spot where it's good to be."

'Tops In Sports

By JOE TEBOREK

November 6th is the day set aside for the oldest football rivals in the state of Kentucky. On this day the Eastern Maroons of Richmond travel to the Western Campus for the 28th meeting of Western and Eastern football teams.

Starting back in 1914, when Western and Eastern teams first met on the gridiron, this clash has become the highlight of the football season for both schools. In 1914 two games between the schools were played; Eastern copping the first game 36 to 6 and the Hilltoppers coming back to win the second, 18 to 0.

From that year on the games between the two schools have become more and more hard fought battles, as the rivalry grew. Western went ahead in the win column. Until the game this year Western's Hilltoppers have won 19, while losing only 7 to the Maroons. The record does not disclose a score for the 1916 game. Also there have been no tie ball games, between the two teams.

CLAYTON'S COMMENT: Coach Jack Clayton has asked me to pass this on to you, the Western fan and ardent football supporter. His thanks go out to you for your wonderful enthusiasm and untiring support of the team. He said this is one of the most important ingredients in the formula for a winning ball club.

Looking again at the record indicates another surprising feature. The total points scored against the Maroons through the years total 556 points. Eastern has only collected 151 points against their Hilltopper opponents. This puts Western considerably ahead in total offense. The most lopsided scores between the two teams were in 1922, when Western trounced Eastern by a score of 47 to 6. A few years later in 1930, Western again set the Maroons back by the biggest margin ever recorded with a 50 to 0 win. 1934 saw the Toppers conquering Eastern 47 to 9 and the following year by a score of 40 to 6. It wasn't until 1952, when Western again trounced the Maroons with a 48 to 6 beating. Oddly enough, Eastern hasn't beaten a Hilltopper squad by more than 30 points.

This year's game is homecoming for the Toppers, and from all indications, promises to be the best yet. Not only is the game a big rivalry, but it brings together two gridiron powers of the state. At press time both squads have a perfect record. Neither team has been beaten or tied by any opponent. This game will feature two of the states leading scorers in Easterns' Don Daly and Western's Millard Shirley.

Shirley, junior fullback from Springfield, has already collected 30 points, only to be equalled by Daly. Not only have Shirley's five touchdowns added to Western's scoring punch, but his fine running and defensive play have made him a standout in the Topper line.

With memories of Little All-American Jimmy Feix still fresh in the minds of most Western fans, Coach Jack Clayton has come up with a fine little quarterback in Jerry Nassano. Going into this weeks game, Nassano is ranked 5th nationally in the pass completion department. In the scoring column the signal-caller has piled up 18 points.

Homecoming with Eastern brings back memories of thrill packed 60 minutes of football.

Eastern, boasting a powerhouse in 1948 came to Bowling Green to meet the underdog Hilltoppers on their homecoming day. At the end of the half, Eastern was on the short end of a 14 to 0 score. Bouncing back in the third quarter with two touchdowns, the Maroons handmade it a 14 to 13 ballgame. The fourth quarter was hectic for the Toppers, but they held down a desperate Eastern aerial attempt to put the game in their win column.

In 1950 Homecoming fans watched Jimmy Feix long last-second pass to Max Stevens tie the score. Seconds later Butch Gilbert's perfect boot split the uprights and sent the Maroons back to Richmond beaten again in a nerve-racking battle, which was not decided until the final gun sounded.

1952 saw Western romp over an underdog Maroon eleven in one of the biggest scores over any Eastern squad. At the end of this year's gridiron classic between the two rivals, the lads from Richmond went home with a humiliating defeat of 48 to 6.

1954, well, we will have to wait before we can add another chapter of this old rivalry into the record books.

Toppers Collect Fourth And Fifth Wins

WESTERN 19, N. E. LOUISIANA STATE 7

Western roared to its fifth straight victory last Saturday by beating Northeast Louisiana State 19-7, before a Band Day crowd of 3,500 in the Western stadium.

The undefeated Hilltoppers lost no time in crashing the scoring column, using 14 plays after taking the opening kick-off to send Millard Shirley wide around end for the first marker. It was Shirley, too, who gave the extra driving force with a 19-yard carry during the series of plays which began on the Topper 22.

Western registered again shortly after the opening of the second quarter taking over on downs on its own 32. A sustained drive deposited the ball on the Louisiana 12 and quarterback Jerry Nassano knifed through the middle for the Hilltoppers second touchdown of the game and the Toppers led 12-0. Western failed to make the extra point on both touchdowns.

The Louisianians broke the Western tally habit with a touchdown in the second period. Taking possession on the enemy 48 after a Western punt, the boys from the bayou consumed four plays in driving to the Western 32. Jim Bradley passed to Jarrell Busby who went over for a touchdown. Dan Andrews contributed the extra point from placement.

The Louisianians threatened in the fourth period with a drive, to the Western 26, but the Hilltoppers dug in and took over on downs.

Shirley climaxed a five-play drive with a 46-yard scamper which placed the ball on the Louisiana 35. Right halfback Jim Gunnell then took the ball on a trap play and sped through the middle for the Hilltoppers' final marker. Gunnell added the point by conversion, and Western won 19-7.

WESTERN BUMPS MOREHEAD 19-13

Western Kentucky's Hilltoppers recovered from a second quarter fumble to overcome Morehead's Eagles 19-13 in an Ohio Valley Conference clash at Morehead October 9.

It was the Hilltoppers' second win in the Ohio Valley Conference and their fourth straight win of the season.

Millard Shirley put Western out front 7-0 in the first period on a 15-yard jaunt following the Hilltopper recovery of an Eagle fumble on the Morehead 38.

Morehead recovered a Western fumble early in the second quarter on the Hilltoppers' 30-yard line. They moved the ball to the Western 24 on ground plays. From there fullback Rondal Hart passed to end Paul Ousley for the first Morehead score. Harold Barker kicked the point to make the score 7-7.

A crowd of 2,500 watched each team fumble the ball away four times.

On the ensuing kick-off, Morehead recovered the ball on the Western four. Hart circled his left end for the score, but Brown missed the extra point, and the Eagles led 13-7.

Coach Jack Clayton's crew then drove 51 yards in eight plays late in the second quarter to tie the game. Jim Gunnell paced the drive with a 26-yard carry. Jerry Nas-sano capped the drive with a six-yard ramble for the score. Gunnell missed the try for the extra point.

Western wasted little time in hanging up its final marker in the third quarter. The Hilltoppers took the opening kick-off on their own 36, and after eight plays, Shirley scored the winning marker.

Hatfield-McCoy Engagement Ends Famous Feud

By PATTY THOMPSON

The Hatfields and the McCoy's are peace-lovin' families today. Proof of this lies in the fact that Rene Ferrell Hatfield, Western freshman, is engaged to Anna Lou McCoy, who is teaching at Pikeville.

Rene met Anna Lou in high school at Elkhorn City.

They are both direct descendants of the feudist leaders, Randolph McCoy and Anse Hatfield.

The parents of the engaged pair live in Blackberry in Eastern Kentucky where some of the feudin' actually took place. They look with approval on the future marriage. Rene and Anna Lou will tell the stories of the feuds to their children as it was told to them.

Kentucky Building News

By KEN GIBSON

Visit the Kentucky Building! If you are new at Western or have never been in the Kentucky Building, you should go there in the near future.

The Kentucky Building is a museum and library containing a collection of Kentuckiana which tells the story of the Commonwealth from its beginning to the present.

It plays an important part in the educational program of the college and of the state. The library is used by students studying Kentucky subjects, and the museum serves these classes for laboratory purposes as visual aid.

Public schools, both local and those within an area extending about 250 miles, bring their classes to the museum to learn the history of this state. These visitors include pupils from nursery school through the grades and high school.

The Kentucky Library is now recognized as one of the most adequate and all-inclusive collections of Kentucky books, pamphlets, newspapers, magazines, music, old prints and manuscripts to be found anywhere in the United States. Authors and research workers throughout the nation use the material which has been gathered here.

Thousands of tourists from every state in the Union and many foreign countries visit the museum. The Kentucky Building is possibly the outstanding tourist attraction in the city.

It is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 5 on week days, except on Saturday when it closes at 4 p.m. On Sunday afternoons the museum is open from 2 until 4.

Admission is free, so see for yourself one of the most important and interesting parts of your college.

number of students who voted and also the percentage of each class. The official opening of the campaign at Western was in the Student Union building on Oct. 11, when Mr. Joe Bill Bryant, president of the Young Democrat's Club of Warren county, addressed members and guests of the Congress Debating Club. Mr. Bryant, speaking for former Vice-president Barkley and the Democratic party, met a challenging discussion by the Cooper followers in the audience. This discussion and meeting was the kick-off for the four club members, Walt Apperson, Bob Baggett, Frank Groshelle, and Lacy Wilkins who are forwarding the campaign on the campus.

These four students will speak at the club's next meeting Monday night and will present this same series at chapel Wednesday. Walt Apperson, senior English major from Mayfield, and Bob Baggett, junior history major from Paducah, will speak in behalf of Mr. Barkley. Challenging them for Mr. Cooper will be Frank Groshelle, senior geography major from Somerset, and Lacy Wilkins, junior English major from Hopkinsville.

Each of these speakers have had interviews with Mr. Barkley and Mr. Cooper and have received advice about conducting the campaign. Mr. Cooper is from Mr. Groshelle's home town, Somerset, and Mr. Apperson's mother and father are the Democratic chairwoman and chairman of Graves County.

Following the chapel program Wednesday, polls will open at Cherry Hall Thursday at 7:45 a.m. These polls will be open until 4:30 p.m. in order that each student will have a chance to vote.

Sterling Clark, vice-president of the Congress Debating Club and chairman of this campaign stated "It is hoped that this campaign and election will create within each student an active interest in the election of representatives to Congress."
